Darwin's mystery of mysteries!

Produced by Mirage3D

Distributed by Loch Ness Productions

Join the young Charles Darwin on his adventurous voyage of exploration circumnavigating the world on the HMS Beagle, where he was inspired by what he saw on the islands of the Galapagos to develop his theory of transmutation by natural selection.

In Darwin's Victorian times, many physical phenomena had already been discovered and described by natural laws, but life's most eloquent question remained unanswered: how could new species arise to replace those lost through extinction? It was time for someone to stand up and come forth with a naturalist's explanation of this mystery of mysteries.

From the comfort of Down House in Kent, Darwin himself explains the mechanism of natural selection to the audience, and supports it by showing many beautiful examples in nature. Witness the thrill of scientific discovery by seeing the world through Darwin's eyes. Make observations of the most beautiful natural scenery and let the pieces of the scientific puzzle slowly, but surely, fall into place.

Listen and watch as Darwin reveals the simple and beautiful mechanism that explains the evolution of all life on Earth: Natural Selection.

Running time: ~40:00
